PV101 Day 3 Morning Quiz

Solar Photovoltaics Basics by Shawn White - Chapters 3 and 4 reading check

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Answer in your own words. This is a reading check and a thinking check. Short, clear answers are better than fancy nonsense.

1. In solar work, what does PV stand for?

_____

_____

2. What type of electricity does a solar module produce directly?

_____

3. A solar cell is smaller than a solar module. True or false?

_____

4. What is an array?

_____

_____

5. What does irradiance describe?

_____

_____

6. What does insolation describe?

_____

_____

7. Why can shade on one part of a module matter?

_____

_____

8. Write the power formula.

_____

_____

9. If a 12.8 V battery powers a 2 A load, about how many watts is that?

_____

10. What does a charge controller do in a battery-based PV system?

_____

11. What does an inverter do?

_____

_____

12. Name one DC load you might find in an RV.

_____

_____

13. What is the difference between voltage and current in plain language?

_____

14. Why do we verify instead of trusting labels?

_____

_____

15. What should you do before touching an unknown wire or device?

_____